A LETTER FROM THE TREASURER

Dear Friends:

Declining tax revenue and the expenditure by Missouri government of more money than it is collecting in taxes have forced a policy change in investment of short term deposits by the Office of State Treasurer.

General revenue receipts for the first four months (July through October) of the 1980-81 fiscal year were down 1.75 percent, or $9,165,431, compared to the same period of the preceding fiscal year.

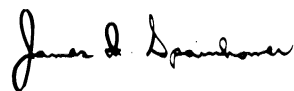

Also, from July 1 through October 31 of this year, Missouri government spent $230,924,590 more than it actually received in tax revenue.

As a result of these negative economic factors, I have directed that the amount of state funds available for short term deposits be reduced by 50 percent, or $125 million. This action means a substantial reduction in funds for banks to lend to consumers at a time when money already is in short supply and interest rates are high.

The drop in general revenue receipts was spearheaded by a continuing sharp fall in sales tax revenue, which was down 12.30 percent from July through October, compared to the same period last year. Sales tax revenue for the new reporting period totaled $210,197,893, which was $29,477,156 less than the amount received in the comparable fiscal period.

Receipts from individual and corporate income taxes maintained modest gains in the first four months of the current fiscal year. Individual income tax receipts totaled $196,788,263, up 7.45 percent, and corporate income tax receipts were $38,551,775, a gain of 7.51 percent.

Sincerely,

James I Spainhower
Missouri State Treasurer
